Figure 3: A message composer can help you specify the contents of Layer 3 messages that are used in a test scenario. These messages can perform functions such as setting up a connection.