If the design includes falling-edge-triggered flip-flops, place all of these flip-flops at the beginning of the scan chain for each block and insert lockup latches between blocks.