Now you can learn to develop an ESD program that meets the criteria of ANSI/ESD S20.20. Chairman of the ESD Association Standards Committee and co-author of the ANSI/ESD S20.20, Ron Gibson will be the facilitator for a new educational program presented online through WebEx.

The 60 minute presentation will include the following:

▲ An explanation of criteria required for an S20.20 compliant facility

▲ Discussion of issues including grounding, packaging, training, and documentation

▲ A brief question and answer session
